Lakeview 3rd In Class 'B'

Three Marks Fall In Classic Meet

By BILL FRANK

HASTINGS — Mt. Pleasant High charged to its first Hastings Relays championship in Class 'A' and Lakeview High of Battle Creek finished in C-D title here yesterday in the biggest field in eve[illegible] history of the annual meet.

The Tribes from "up north" scored by a surprising [illegible] point total to a surprisingly [illegible] runaway. Second, next to St. Louis at 38 points, Battle Creek Lakeview, the only school to [illegible] three first places, came in third at 33 tallies.

Lock Vaults 13-3

Reed City got a big organized off second, leaving Battle Creek Lakeview and Mt. Pleasant to a battle for the runner-up spot behind defending champion Sebewaing.

MOW ONLY FINISHED

Class A

Mt. Pleasant [illegible] Battle Creek Lakeview 33, Kalamazoo [illegible] Sebewaing [illegible] Reed City [illegible] Marshall [illegible] Alpena [illegible] Ionia [illegible] Saginaw S. [illegible] 38 points, Everett finished with 37½ for second place and Plainwell nudged up to 34 tallies to make it a ragged three-team struggle.

Lake Vaults and current skies held down record-shattering attempts in the relays but [illegible] made up for it in the hands in the individual events. One relay record fell, the mile distance in Class C-D where Everett's quartet of Ron Hop[illegible] Ron Hoffman, Ken Squire and Dean Lenk was clocked in 3:42.9 to easily eclipse the 3:45.5 mark set in 1951 that had stood since 1941.

Incidentally, another man Lenk [illegible] quarter accounted for a new individual record in the pole vault when he cleared the bar at 12 feet, 3 inches, to shatter the old C-D record of 10-8, set in 1951 by Ken Hoffman, also, an all-state basketball [illegible]

Davis Finishes 2nd

The other individual two record cases in the Class C-D 220 yard high hurdles where Don Davis of Reed City bounced his own mark down to 26.4 from 26.5. He was chased to the tape by teammate Dick Crawford, [illegible] Davis also ran in the [illegible] Jim Dow of Mt. Pleasant equalled the class record of 15.4 set last year by Ron Hop[illegible] What could have been a record jump where Joe Lacey of Kalamazoo St. Augustine was at 5 feet 11½ inches. Leland Davis of Sebewaing was second in the place while two jumpers, Nick Taylor of State High and Don of Mt. Pleasant negotiated 5-10 to be for third spot.

Mt. Pleasant won two of three relays, the mile and the sprint medley, packed up three in the mile relay and two in the sprint medley and [illegible] double. The Tribes also picked up a third in the 440 yard relay and a fourth for second in the half-mile relay.

50 Schools Entered

Lake Vaults were [illegible] in the box of one minute Dave Nelson who will be out at least another week with a throat ailment. [illegible] started in three relay events. The [illegible] Bob Harris, Ron Sebesek, Bill Mottally, Larry Stout and Bob Harris, came in [illegible] in the half-mile relay and Bob Baker, Frank Shipp and Bill Perrett finished [illegible] in the sprint medley. Ken Shotwell, McNally, Harris and Tom Harvey packed up a third. Bill Chardoli finished fifth in the shot put to round out the Tribe relay [illegible]
