Flint Paces Relays; Quakers End Fourth

By BOB HOERNER
(Journal Sports Writer)

MT. PLEASANT, May 3—Flint's pair of high school track powers, Northern and Central, dominated the Class A field of the 18th annual Central Michigan College Relays here Saturday.

Northern, which accounted for three of the 11 records set during the day-long, 16-event carnival, beat out its hometown rival, Central, for top honors, 67½ to 51.

Lansing Eastern tied with Muskegon Heights for fourth place with 28 points behind third-place Inkster which had 49½. Sexton finished 11th with 10½ points.

Boyne City easily won the Class C dividion.

Almost perfect track conditions greeted the swarm of athletes, and they responded with some excellent performances.

Coach Tom Morris' Quakers won the Central Relay for the second straight year. Willie Austin opened up a good lead in his opening 220 and Jim Bohland and Chuck West held the margin in 110-yard sprints. Ray Auvenshine anchored the winning effort with another 220.

Art Vaillencourt, Bonland, West and Gary Ech earned the eastsiders a second in the mile relay. Flint Central won the event.

Eastern picked up the remainder of its points with a third in the 440 relay, a fourth in the 880-yard relay, and fifth in the shuttle hurdle relay.

Sexton's best effort came in the middle distance relay, finishing third in a strong field behind Birmingham and Flint Northern. Running for Coach Russ Maples were Doug Warriner and Jack Wade, who each traveled a half a mile, and quartermilers Bob Felter and Bob Gray. Sexton finished fourth in the Central Relay.

The only individual to place from Sexton or Eastern was Mike Bohnet of the Big Reds squad. He tied for fifth place in the high jump for a half-a-point.

Pontiac, the third power in the Saginaw Valley conference, did not compete in the meet.

Portland, Haslett in Tie for 9th

MT. PLEASANT, May 3 — Three Ingham County league teams hit the scoreboard in the Class C section of the Central Michigan Relays as Boyce City easily won the team title with 46 points.

Haslett topped the County squads with 12 points to finish in a tie for ninth place with Portland, a member of the Tri-C conference.

Okemos finished 15th with nine points and Fowlerville picked up six counters for 20th place. There were 38 Class C schools which scored.

Lake Odessa, another Tri-C conference school, had one point.

Don Tabor and Ron Ferguson, Haslett hurlers, both earned fourth place medals. Tabor ran the highs and Ferguson the lows. Haslett's other eight points came on a second-place finish in the middle distance relay.

Jerry Husby ran fifth in the 100-yard dash for Okemos. The Chiefs two-mile relay team finished second.

Fowlerville hit the board with a third place in the two-mile event.

Steve Willard, Portland sprinter, finished second in the century and he paced the 880-yard relay team to a third place. Portland also finished fifth in the middle distance relay.

Spartan Golfers Down Two Foes

Michigan State university golfers proved they know their own course, opened only last week, as they whipped Notre Dame and University of Detroit in a triangular meet here Saturday. The scores were Michigan State 23, Notre Dame 13 and Michigan State 31, Detroit 5. Notre Dame was credited with a 33½ to 2½ decision over Detroit.

Low medalist for the meet was Lansing's Otto Schubel with a one-under-par 70 on his first ning, Unger had a 4-0 record going into the game and had allowed only one run over the route. Dick Schiesel's single, a double by Russell and Palamara's long triple broke the ice in the third and when Fleser and Jerry Stifler singled to start the fourth Unger departed. The Spartans continued to pound three successors,
