Ann Arbor Wins MSU Relays

those points in the final three events.

What really won it for Ann Arbor was a close triumph over Lansing Sexton in the shuttle hurdle relay and Ken Dyer's winning jump of 6 feet, four inches in the high jump.

Following Ann Arbor in the closely bunched field were: Lansing Sexton 16, Birmingham Seaholm 12, Romulus 12, Bloomfield Hills 10, Roseville 10, Mt. Clemens 10 and Howell 10.

While the 63-year-old Ryan was having a gay night, so were three suburban Detroit entries who posted the day's best performances.

Jim Haviland, a junior from Waterford Kettering, electrified the crowd with a tremendous victory in the pole vault. Haviland, who does his practicing at the University of Michigan twice a week because his school is still building its track, won the vault with a leap of 13 feet, 6 inches.

HAVILAND'S feat tied the state Class A record owned by Flint Central's William Lee but Haviland can't claim a share of the mark. All state records must be set in state championship events.

Jim Foss, a 240-pound senior from Garden City, won the shot with a toss of 53 feet, 8¼ inches, almost four feet better than his best previous effort.

Bob Richards, of Bloomfield Hills, and one of the state's premier milers, turned in an excellent 4:23.8 winning performance.
