ATHLETIC.

The Harriers are Here.

That noted team of English runners, the Salford Harriers, arrived in this city last night and are at the Cadillac. Including the secretary of the club, J. P. Hartnell, the entente the team, there are fifteen in all. The names are as follows: H. Mather, chairman; T. L. Webster, secretary and treasurer; N. S. Morgan, the 10-mile champion; J. Hall, the 5-mile champion; and R. W. Gardner, veteran attendant of the team. J. H. Bardsley, the secretary, is an English newspaper man, and accompanies the team for a number of reasons, one of which is to write up the sports. Trainer of the team, Arthur Duckett, is also traveling with the team. The party left Salford on Saturday last, reached New York on Wednesday morning, and after a short rest, which time no reached at once Friday. On Saturday they were conducted to the exercise course of the Manhattan Athletic club, where they were seen to no disadvantage on the horseback exercise. The boys have not had the use of the track since they arrived in this city, and as the weather is rainy and cold to-day it is not likely that they will do much training. The evening news is no different, and in fact there is such a rainy chance for to-morrow's games that it will be some time before Detroit will see the Salford Harriers in action. The team has not had any hill and dale work since they left Liverpool, and will take one a couple of days before the games.

[illegible] Harriers will be a surprise. The average [illegible] of the team is 5 feet 8 inches, and the average weight 140 pounds. Their appearance is not that of a long distance runner. They are quite round in shape and look more like sprinters. Mr. Hartnell, who is a specialist in fitness, has a wonderful record. I was told that he has never been defeated in a long distance race. He has been secretary of the club for the past seven years, and has been instrumental in bringing the Harriers to a standard of excellence. Mr. Hartnell is particularly desirous that the Harriers should not be beaten by the Detroit athletes, especially [illegible] Detroit [illegible] Harriers. Mr. Hartnell is a member of the Manhattan A. C. and has been in this country for a month. He has been in Detroit before, and is well acquainted with the Detroit athletes. He says that the Detroit athletes are in good condition, and that the Harriers will have to run their best to win.

The Harriers went to the N. A. C. Park yesterday afternoon and were given a warm reception by the boys. Manager Ford Farrar and Captain Ed. Mather were on hand to welcome the visitors, and the Harriers were treated to a ride around the park. The Harriers were in their running togs, and made a fine appearance.
