

The indoor meeting of the Michigan athletic association at the club gymnasium last night drew out a large crowd. In the fence vault, with five entries, Charles B. King, with a hand leap of four inches, cleared 6-1. In the standing broad jump, with six contestants, W. E. Barle, with a hand leap of one inch, cleared 4-5. W. D. Sargeant got the most points in his sparring go with Frank A. Lyon. Larabee, with a hand leap of four inches, won the running high jump, clearing 4-8. Grummond withdrew in the featherweight sparring and Morphy took the medal by default. Lorman won the Indian club race. Horn won the 15-pound shot-throwing contest with a mark of 20-9 at scratch. Lyon defeated McGough in the heavyweight catch-as-catch-can contest, and Grummond got the best of Morphy in the featherweight wrestling. The pole vault went to Hollands by default. The Boylston club and the M. A. A. guitar club sung and played between the various contests.
