

The first annual athletic meeting of the Congregational cadets was held last evening in the hall under the chapel of the First congregational church, among the uniformed visitors being cadets from the First baptist church, St. John's episcopal church and Westminster presbyterian church. The program comprised a fencing exhibition by Prof. John Collins and Edwin F. Mack; banjo solos by Irving Inslee; a tug-of-war, won by the St. John's team; running high jump, won by Otto Stoll, 4 feet $8\frac{3}{4}$ inches; high kick, G. F. Castle, 6 feet 11 inches; standing broad jump, Charles Puhlman, 9 feet 10 inches; a grand march, and a drill by the St. John's cadets.

Julius Koester, a jolly sailor lad who