

HIGH SCHOOL FIELD DAY.

Meeting of the Inter-High School Athletic Association of Calhoun Co.

The Inter-High School Athletic association of Calhoun county held its second annual field day at the fair grounds in this city today. The weather was very favorable but the track was in poor condition. Albion with the yellow and green was here about two hundred strong while Battle Creek with the yellow and blue had about one hundred. The Marshall colors were red and black. The games were to start at 9:30 a. m. but a delay of one hour was made to await the arrival of Albion. The following gentlemen acted as referee, judges, timers, etc: Sam Shipp, of Eckford, referee.

W. C. Hull, Albion; George Miller, Marshall; W. D. Baker, Battle Creek, judges.

H. B. Lenoard, Albion; Frank Ostrand, Marshall; F. J. Rathbun, Battle Creek, W. Bowls; Battle Creek, timers. Charlie Mack, Albion; Claude Stout, Marshall; W. D. Baker, Battle Creek, scorers.

Will Durand, Marshall; H. E. Lenoard, Albion, starters.

Re S. Garwood, Marshall, clerk of course.

The following events were completed up to the time our report closed.

100 YARD DASH.

There were six entries and as the starters could not get the guns to work it was run the second time. Simpson, Albion, 1st; Deuel, Marshall, 2d; Farley, Albion, 3d. Time 11 sec.
