

DETROIT HIGH SCHOOL TRACK TEAM.

In the upper row, beginning at the left of the picture, are Birkling, W. Dado, Shores, Ellis, Caplin, J. Dodd, Gardner and Tamm. In the second row are the left, then Richards, Lusk, Wallace, Morgan, Smith and Baker. At the left of the bottom row is Gibson, and (from right to left) the photograph is by Kaplan.

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETES.

When the track team of Detroit High School was a general set in the country, the newspaper commented: "There has not been a general set in the country since the days of the 'old boys'." The Detroit High School track team is now the best in the city, and the best in the state. The team has won many victories, and is now the champion of the state. The team is now the champion of the state, and is now the champion of the state.

CHAMPION OF HIS PEOPLE.

Rabbi Franklin comes to the city with High School. He has been a champion of his people, and is now the champion of his people. He has been a champion of his people, and is now the champion of his people. He has been a champion of his people, and is now the champion of his people.

GRAVES OF SHANTONNE AND HIS WIFE.

The graves of Shantonne and his wife are in the cemetery. The graves are simple, and are in the cemetery. The graves are simple, and are in the cemetery. The graves are simple, and are in the cemetery.

SEVEN GABLES.

The street scene shows seven gables. The street scene shows seven gables. The street scene shows seven gables. The street scene shows seven gables. The street scene shows seven gables.

DR. LEO M. FRANKLIN.

The New Rabbi of Temple Beth Shalom, who has been a champion of his people. He has been a champion of his people, and is now the champion of his people. He has been a champion of his people, and is now the champion of his people.

Detroit HS track feature

Clipped By:

jeffhollobaugh
Fri, Aug 17, 2018