points to make it a tie. The standing of the point winners at the close follows: Williams, 5.83; Colburn, 4.62; Corlies, 4.34; Wendell, 3.28. Sixteen other athletes scored below 5.00. Besides winning the Sturgeon trophy, Williams also won a gym suit. Colburn scored the highest number of points in the track events with 3,027 and Corlies was first in the gymnastic work with 3,358. Three athletes will receive a school banner for their good showing.

Yesterday saw another big crowd in the school gym, and the athletic fund will be replenished to the extent of $25, which will go toward defraying the expenses of the track team to the Yale games at New Haven. The gymnastic programme of Tuesday was repeated but the closing events for the all-around championship resulted as follows:

Points race, 70 yards—Kaywood, first, 13 1/4 seconds; Corlies, second, 13 3/4 seconds; Post, third, 13 5/8 seconds.

Running high jump—Ford, 5 feet 1 inch; Nicol, second, 5 feet; Colburn, third, 4 feet 11 inches.

Horizontal bar—Corlies, first, 65 points; Kaywood, second, 60 points; Williams and Wendell tied for third with 63 points.

return and being traced to the place where Lillie looks to be in camp. The all-around champion, but was soon overtaken by Corlies.
