HONORS WENT TO CHICAGO

LEWIS INSTITUTE WON MEET AT ANN ARBOR YESTERDAY.

D. U. S. WAS SECOND AND CENTRAL HIGH FOURTH.

FIVE RECORDS WERE SMASHED BY THE HOT ATHLETES.

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 23.—(Special.)—Lewis Institute, of Chicago, won today's interscholastic meet very handily, but it was mainly through the real varsity form of Hogensen, one of the most prominent preparatory school athletes in the country. The distribution of points between Lewis Institute, 42; Detroit U. S., 21; Grand Rapids, 16; Detroit C. H., 13; Grand Rapids, 10; Cleveland U. S., 10; Evanston, 10; Battle Creek, 8; Saginaw, 4 1-2; M. M. A., 2; Charlevoix, 1; Toledo, 1; Wayne, 1. Of the 42 points made by Lewis Institute, Hogenson made 16. He beat Keeler, of Detroit, with comparative ease in both dashes. This morning he scored second place in the hammer throw, and this afternoon he broke the Michigan interscholastic record of 5 feet 3 inches in the high jump.

Nisel, of Detroit University School, was both hurdle races. Hoth and Hogensen, of Lewis Institute, were the best he could do was fourth in each of the 1mce events.

Barker, of Evanston, was not pushed hard to win the quarter-mile event.

Chidsey Beaten in Mile.

Grand Rapids maintained its reputation for turning out distance runners by winning the two-mile race and second in the one-mile. McCrae's time in this broke the interscholastic record by 10 seconds. The race for third place in the mile between Colburn and Chidsey, of Grand Rapids, and Hoffman, of Battle Creek, a grandson of Dan Rannay, had it all his own way in the two-mile run from the fourth and finished his lead steadily, beating out Reynolds, of Ann Arbor, by a yard. Lewis Institute captured the relay race in good time. The great Hogensen ran the last 220 yards, and this tripled his track pile up an extra point. Ann Arbor and Detroit Central were looking during the meet showed what a success the contest was.

Central High Boy Broke Record.

In this morning's field events of the inter-scholastic, Mercer, of the high were broken. Mercer, of the high school, of Detroit Central High school, today raised it to 5 feet 3 inches, establishing a new record for the pole vault by going over the bar at 10 feet. Hogensen, of Lewis Institute, raised his record for the high jump from 5 feet 2 inches to 5 feet 3 inches. The record for the shot-put was 40 feet 7 1-2 inches up until to-day, when Lawton, of Detroit Central, made the iron ball to 41 feet 7 inches, smashing the old record by nearly a foot.
