

ANN ARBOR WON ATHLETIC MEET

DOWNED CENTRAL HIGH AT THE D. A. C. FIELD. STATE OUTFIT WAS STRONG AND WELL BALANCED. GOT SECONDS AND THIRD WHEN IT COULD NOT WIN.

The weather was anything but propitious for the first outdoor track meet of the season, which was pulled off at the D. A. C. grounds yesterday morning, between Detroit Central and Ann Arbor high schools, the former going down to defeat by a score of 106 to 58. Despite the threatening rain, local enthusiasts were out in force to watch the more of nearly entire go through their stride. For Detroit it was an uphill struggle from the start; three of its best men being out on account of conditions in their classes, and Little Alvin Hartman, the captain and star sprinter, laid up and unable to compete.

Ann Arbor, whose team was strong and well balanced, started in with a bang in the first two events, and opening up a lead of ten points in the 100-yard dash. Detroit's best runner, James H. Shaw, who had won the 100 and 200 yard dashes, winning both here in these events, in time that was certainly fast, considering the nature of the track. It was not until he had made him up with a second or a couple of thirds in these events it is possible that Central would have won the meet, but as it was, that best that could be done was a hard one. In the 100, won by H. Shaw, the hurdler, who was in to fill out the entries.

Long Run a Walk-Over.

In the distance runs Ann Arbor had a walk-over, and the 1000-yard race, which was won by H. Shaw, for Central had just a 100 yard sprint to get into the race. In the 1000 yard dash, which was won by H. Shaw, the hurdler, who was in to fill out the entries. In the 1000-yard race, which was won by H. Shaw, the hurdler, who was in to fill out the entries.
