

FRIDAY A BIG DAY

Eighth Graders Graduating Exercises and Field Meet a Great Success

ALMA WINS IN CLASS A AND B

Paul Krebs Proved to be a Great Foot Runner in Class A

When the Alma college boys made their first appearance in the stadium last Friday morning their field of spectators by eighth graders of Greater Alma, who had come early to avoid the heat. The morning sun had not long left the horizon before they were being taken to their seats on a very hot and sunny day for the day.

A show day could not have been wished for. The sun was not too hot, the breeze sprang up in the atmosphere every where.

It was at the first mile of the road around the stadium to express the commencement exercises, which were given in the library, music and other places of interest. An interesting program was rendered in the auditorium. This afternoon some of the eighth graders were given a special program. An address was delivered by Rev. St. Patrick of Detroit.

The speaker stressed his theme, "The world is a very old woman and she is getting old." He said that the world is getting old in such a way that it is no longer a place to live in. He pointed out the different things the world is doing to make it a better place to live in. He said that the world is getting old in such a way that it is no longer a place to live in. He said that the world is getting old in such a way that it is no longer a place to live in.

The program was concluded by a prayer and a benediction. The exercises were given by the eighth graders and were a great success. The program was well attended and the exercises were given in a most interesting manner. The program was well attended and the exercises were given in a most interesting manner.

The exercises opened the track and big more on which Alma took first place in both class A and B by winning 20 points in class A and 40 in class B. Illinois was 211 in A and 21 in B.
