WILL RESIDE IN ALMA.

H. M. Page of Seville Township to Move to City of Alma.

The Record office job rooms are just completing a large quantity of advertising matter descriptive of central Michigan and Gratiot county farms in particular for H. M. Page, who in the spring of 1911 moved to Gratiot county from Urbana, Illinois, and purchased the James McNamara farm south of Elwell.

Mr. Page, like scores who have located in this section of the Wolverine state, has become an enthusiast over the climate, soil and possibilities of Michigan agriculture and has leased office room in the opera house block intending to get busy and let his Illinois friends know of the advantages to be had in this the garden spot of central Michigan. Mr. Page has leased the F. E. Ellsworth property on State street and will occupy the same as a residence as soon as vacated by Dr. Gardner. The citizens of Alma will be pleased to again welcome Mr. and Mrs. Page as residents of the handsomest little city in Michigan.

IT 'IS A BOY.

Friday Morning, May 30, Cashier Washburn of the First State Bank, extended greetings to Leo Carl Washburn, and later in the day issued announcements of the young gentleman's arrival.
