

Y. M. C. A. TAKES TRACK CONTEST

Beats Eastern in Good Competition by 58 to 37; Williams and Gleason Star.

In the annual Y. M. C. A. track meet with Eastern high school, the "Y" was returned the winner by a score of 58 to 37.

Good competition was shown in all of the events and good time was made although no records were broken.

Walbridge took the only first place for his team in the half mile showing the way in the fast time of 2:12. Snyder and MacDonald run a fine race in the mile with the Eastern boy only a few feet behind at the finish. In the relay the Eastern team showed lots of speed and made a handy win.

Williams was the big scorer for the "Y" team against his former teammates by winning three first places for 15 points. Gleason of Eastern, won 17 points by his all-around ability.
