

SATURDAY'S GAME LAST
BIG FOOTBALL CONTEST

KALAMAZOO WILL SEND OVER
ABOUT 300 ROOTERS.

Battle Creek and Kalamazoo Cross-Country Runners Participate in Annual Cup Tourney.

Saturday's game at Allwardt field, when Kalamazoo and Battle Creek high school teams meet, will be the last big football game of the season locally. It will also be the first time the high school band will be out to lend its music and rooting ability.

It is expected that about 300 fans from Kalamazoo will come over with the team.

A cross country run between Kalamazoo and Battle Creek track teams will be held in the morning. It will start at the high school building at 10 o'clock and finish at the high school. A silver cup is up, which shall be the property of the team winning three times in succession. Two years ago Kalamazoo won and last year Battle Creek won.

The judges will be Judson Hyames, Y. M. C. A. physical director; Floyd A. Rowe, Camp athletic director and Burr Osborn, of Trench and Camp and News and Enquirer.
