Though active spring and summer n athletic competition will be abolished at most city and state schools at the request of the Michigan Interscholastic association which decided on the ban in favor of a "back to the farm' movement, at its meetht he ing in Ann Arbor last week, local schools will not be without some 53 athletic recreation until the schools OT close in June. R Every school will be represented on the diamond by inter-class teams ct and in a few cases even by 'varsity OT teams. Central has gone ahead with Eits program and is intending having a representative nine this year. though how many stars of last year de will return is a question, as a numpber are expected to leave for farm nø, work when the call is made in April. Western intends having a regular oL team and already has received offers ch, to play games with Windsor, Wyan-- 10 dotte and other out-of-town schools, nt-which the Cowboys may accept.

MORE HASE BALL THAN EVER.

rød Every school, however, with the hor exception of fewer or no 'varaity out eet games at all, will play more base t. ball than ever before. Each grade room will be represented by one or ing more teams and games will be ont played for the championships of grade rooms, of class rooms, of high Jur. school clubs and of the schools. Int-Games between grade rooms of difites ferent schools taking on the aspect of inter-school competition may also In be played. ilch Outdoor track work will not be .000 started this year, the 'varsity track nds competition of the high schools ending with the indoor meet at the "Y" nen Saturday night. But what applies ght to base ball with regard to inter-JST class competition willapply to track mon and the thin clads will undoubtedly 0118 get as much practic in the inter-The class outdoor and in oor meets as nter they would in school ompetition. und TENNIS COMES TOFFRONT. 20 Tennis will come into its own this With the interest in other year. sports samewhat dampened on acpart count of the war and farm work, and the students will turn their attenn of tion more and more to this sport ract, and courts in all parts of the city will be available for use. Western d do high has courts at Clark park, dithe rectly opposite the school. Northplon western has Ferry field and Central t 15 has courts at Goldberg field. Easteally ern net lovers have courts within CRN walking distance. The other schools am recreation grounds nearby have elon. which they will be able to use, or 10 66 are having fields prepared which should be ready in time for the bet-AGO at Gladwin park and other centers at ready to be used.
