

CENTRAL SWAMPS

CASS ON TRACK

Takes Indoor Affair Without Much Trouble, 70-24.

Central defeated Cass Monday afternoon in a dual track meet, 70 to 24. In defeating Cass, Central shows she is still in the race for a city title.

The absence of Captain "Dick" Laurence did not hinder the Blue and White squad. Flesher and B. Jones, both Central men, were the bright lights of the meet. In the half-mile, Shilkovsky ran a wonderful race. Central took all places in three events.
