CENTRAL DOWNS COLTS ON TRACK

Northwestern Drops Annual Dual Meet, 53 to 41.

Central's track performers partially appeased the sting left by the recent basketball defeat at the hands of Northwestern by winning the annual indoor meet Friday afternoon, 53 to 41, the Trailblazers by their strength in the field events, overcoming the Colts' early lead.

Captain Blanchard, of Northwestern, half miler by trade, switched to the 220 and 440-yard dashes and won them both in good time. As a result, Keyes, of Central had the race his own way in the "380."

The relay went to Central by a lap. Prout besides winning the pole vault, took first in the high hurdles and tied for second in the low.

30-yard dash—Wagner (N. W.), first; Tait (N. W.), second; Watkins (C), third. Time—3 4-5.

100—Ruckstahl (N. W.), first; MacDonald (C), second; Lindsey (N. W.), third. Time—4:05 4-5.
