

CENTRAL'S TRACK TEAM WINS MEET

Highland Park High School
Loses by 52 1-2 to 42 1-2.

Central collected another indoor track victory Friday afternoon by tumbling Highland Park in the Cass avenue gymnasium, 52 1-2 to 42 1-2.

Watkins, Central's anchor man in the relay, contributed the sensation of the meet. He started the last lap five yards behind but picked up the distance before the finish and won out by a scant margin.

Percy Prout registered 10 feet, 6 1-2 inches in the pole vault, bettering his own city record mark, also won the high hurdles for Central and took third in the low.

Dave Lester, Central, hurled the shot 39 feet, 3 3-4 inches besides winning the high jump.
