

CASS WINNER IN TRACK MEET

Mechanics Take Relay Event to Defeat Eastern in Opener, 51 to 43.

Cass Tech, with Bill Loving in the major role, won its opening track meet of the season Friday afternoon by defeating Eastern, 51 to 43, in the Indiana' gymnasium.

The meet wasn't decided until the final event, the relay, which Cass won with a lead of a quarter lap at the finish. The Mechanics won seven first places, but this advantage was cut by the number of second and third positions credited to Eastern.

Bill Loving, who was one of the outstanding figures in prep track circles last year, annexed honors in the two hurdle events, and high jump aside from placing second in the 30-yard dash and running as anchor man on the relay team. His showing was the main factor of the Cass victory.

The Mechanics enjoyed a lead of three points when the relay was called and realizing that defeat in that race meant loss of the meet they jumped into the lead at the sound of the gun and never relinquished that position.
