Perfort weather favored the preliminaries of the second annual junior Olympic held Saturday after noon under the joint auspices of the Dopartment of Recreation and the Detroit Rotary Club. The meet is an international A[fair for boys 12 to 18 sponsored by the National Boys' Week Committee. "Thousands of boys" throughout the United States and Canada took part the preliminaries yesterday jn to determine the contestants for the tinals which will be held next Satwrday at Belle Isle and Codd Field. Results of the finals will be wired to hendquarters in Chicago where the winners will be announced. Sev-eral hundred boys took part in the competitions in Detroit, 12 dlfferen playfields being used to run off thevents. Two finalists were picked in the dashes but only one in each of the other events, and shared as Summaries, according to playfields, follow:
