Lack of Condition Is Only Barrier In Path of Quartet

Big Red Half Milers May Get Chance to Match Speed With Best in Country; Big Squad Out for First Drill Tuesday; Set Date for Interclass Meet

Lansing High school in all probability will be represented at the Drake university relays this spring. The Big Red runners have been promised a trip to the Des Moines, Ia., event if the team can convince Coach "Brownie" Springer that it is in the proper physical condition by the date of the meet. Coach Springer is contemplating sending a two mile relay team. The athletes got down to work this afternoon, hoping to convince their mentor that the team would be in shape for the trip.

Ed Killoran and Henry George, two veteran half milers, will form the nucleus of the team. These athletes are expected to win places while Captain Don Kingscott, Dale Stafford, Max Crall, Algate, Becker and Block are all considered possibilities.

Kingscott has always specialized in the quarter mile but has possibilities in the half and has run the longer race in very good time. Stafford is the best sprint man the Big Reds have in sight this spring but he can adapt himself to the 886 yard grind without difficulty.

The interclass track meet has been set for April 18. As usual this meet will give Coach Springer a chance to look over all the material that he will have available this spring. A good sized squad of athletes were out Tuesday afternoon but it is expected to grow as the week progresses.

Men not already mentioned who reported were: Leonard, Barratt, Dodge, Keitche, Duret, Livermore, Smith, Eaton, Kelley, Honnenbeck, Shippe and Benson.

Ohio State 5; Miami 4.

C., ball park Tuesday saw a tall, slim youngster, of much less poundage than the giant Babe Ruth they had come to see, drive two balls into the far spaces. Ruth scheduled hero of the drama, was wrestling about on a hotel bed with another attack of the "flu" which knocked him for a "homer" a few hours previously. He fainted in the station and had been borne into the hotel in the brawny arms of his team mates, Joe
