WESTERN BOWS IN TRACK MEET

Cowboys Lose to Cass, 56 to 36, as Highland Park Beats Northern, 60 to 35.

Loving and Oliver Lead Scorers of Winning Teams in Dual Events.

Highland Park and Cass Tech encountered little difficulty winning dual track meets from Northern and Western, respectively, Thursday afternoon.

The Polar Bears annexed the majority of first places to beat Northern, 60 to 46, while Cass Tech held Western to four first places and drew down the verdict, 56 to 39.

Cass Tech's best showing came in the relay where the Green and White quartet came within six feet of lapping the Cowboys, Bill Loving, as usual, carried off individual honors with 11 1-4 points.

In beating Northern, Highland Park unearthed a real pole vaulter in Oliver, who leaped the best height of his school career and drew down the low hurdles number and tied in the high jump, aside from running on the relay team to capture high point honors.
