

Colts Are Winners in Track Meet

By winning first place in all but two events Northwestern had no trouble in defeating Highland Park in the annual track meet held at the Northwestern gym. The Colts scored 77 points to 16 for the Polar Bears.

Ross took first place in the 30-yard dash and the 30-yard low hurdles while Widman finished first in the 30-yard high hurdles. Musser, Northwestern's new track sensation, ran the 440-yard dash in 1-5 of a second faster than the city record. His time was 57 seconds.

Peters was first in half mile and Oliver took first place in the pole vault. There were the only firsts that the suburban boys won:
