ROSS EQUALS OLDEST MARK IN TRACK TEST

and from the time made by Al Junkelman, of Northern, in last year's meet. Mosserhas turned in even better time in dual competition but the Colt flash was handicapped Wednesday because of a faulty start.

On the basis of this showing in the trials there is little likelihood that Northwestern will be defeated in the finals. In only two events is there any hope of rival schools to gain an edge on the Ohio, the pole vault and high jump. Northwestern was unable to qualify a vaulter and was forced to accept fourth place in the high jump.

Newcomer in Shot.

A new face was placed at the head of the shot putters, an event in which Northwestern always was strong in other years. Since the graduation of Glenn Carlson, Northwestern is without a strong putter and Gowman, of Eastern, stepped into the gap.

In all other events the Red and Gray should place and its strength in the dashes, hurdles and relay, should carry it safely over the opposition to be supplied by rival schools in the finals.
