MEET FAVORITES

Fort Collins Takes Leadoff With Six Points.

Chicago, June 3 (A.P.)—Future stars of the collegiate athletic world began their battle for supremacy today in the preliminaries of the national interscholastic track and field championship meet.

The finals will be staged on Soldiers field on the lake front tomorrow with a recordbreaking list of 1,000 schoolboy athletes from 182 high schools in thirty-three states competing. The meet is being held under the direction of "Old Man" Stagg, veteran director of athletics at the University of Chicago, who started this
