Forced To Lift State High Jump

FALCONS STRONG IN SEVEN EVENTS

City Tiltsholders Hold Edge in Both Dash, Broad Jump, Hurdles, Quarter Mile and Relay—Several Records Sighted.

Fast Easting May in sports practically all scenes unfolded S. L. Poynter, assistant director of athletics at Michigan state school, in making final preparations for the track and field season which will begin in a few days.

There will be four track meets to progress at the same time, the four of which will be the most important of the year. The first will be at the University of Michigan, the second at the University of Wisconsin, the third at the University of Michigan, and the fourth at the University of Michigan.

Chief interest in the meet attaches to the Class A contest. Detroit is represented by the city champions, the state champions, and the champions of the city of Detroit. The city champions will offer an accurate picture of the city's progress in the various events. The state champions will offer a picture of the progress of the state as a whole. The city of Detroit champions will offer a picture of the progress of the city of Detroit.

The first meet will be at the University of Michigan, the second at the University of Wisconsin, the third at the University of Michigan, and the fourth at the University of Michigan.
