tering type. He cannot be persuaded to bait the umpires or spit tobacco juice into his glove. His even temper is described by some as a baseball handicap—but Charley is batting .378 and fielding .991, which excuses him for lack of what the critics are wont to define as color.

There have been many good second basemen since Lajoie, among them Eddie Collins, Pep Young and Bill Wambsganns, but did any of them have a pair of hands as sure as Gehring's? And Gehring is unlike Lajoie only because he hits 'em from the other side of the plate.

IRISH RENEW NAVY RIVALRY

Notre Dame, Ind., May 11.—Athletic rivalry of the University of Notre Dame and the United States Naval academy at Annapolis, Md., will be stretched to the field of baseball on Saturday, June 1, when the Irish and Middies meet at Annapolis.
