

SOUTH ENDERS RUN OFF WITH HONORS

Win Big Five Championship For Second Year
As Field Events Here On Saturday

Young horses in Southern track and field championships won't be able to get a look at the new year with the exception of the team by Penn. getting the north and where they second consecutive "big money" of the track and field championship of the year.

Some of the best tracks in the world were featured by the track events, and the big five events, which of the tracks were scored by the crowd, was the scene of the day, when the track champions, Villanova, Michigan, Michigan State, Wisconsin, Ohio and Penn. State, were in action.

At the end of the day, Penn. State was the winner of the big five events, and the crowd was so large that the track was completely packed, and the spectators were so numerous that the track was completely packed.

The champion of the big five events was the team by Penn. State, which won the championship for the second year.

Other teams in the big five events were the team by Michigan, Michigan State, Wisconsin, Ohio and Penn. State.

The big five events were the 100 yard dash, 200 yard dash, 400 yard dash, 800 yard dash, and 1,600 yard dash.

The champion of the 100 yard dash was the team by Penn. State, which won the championship for the second year.

The champion of the 200 yard dash was the team by Michigan, which won the championship for the second year.

The champion of the 400 yard dash was the team by Michigan State, which won the championship for the second year.

The champion of the 800 yard dash was the team by Wisconsin, which won the championship for the second year.

The champion of the 1,600 yard dash was the team by Penn. State, which won the championship for the second year.

The big five events were held on Saturday, May 11, 1929, at the track and field championships in Southern track and field.

The big five events were the 100 yard dash, 200 yard dash, 400 yard dash, 800 yard dash, and 1,600 yard dash.

The champion of the 100 yard dash was the team by Penn. State, which won the championship for the second year.

The champion of the 200 yard dash was the team by Michigan, which won the championship for the second year.

The champion of the 400 yard dash was the team by Michigan State, which won the championship for the second year.

The champion of the 800 yard dash was the team by Wisconsin, which won the championship for the second year.

The champion of the 1,600 yard dash was the team by Penn. State, which won the championship for the second year.

The big five events were held on Saturday, May 11, 1929, at the track and field championships in Southern track and field.

The big five events were the 100 yard dash, 200 yard dash, 400 yard dash, 800 yard dash, and 1,600 yard dash.

The champion of the 100 yard dash was the team by Penn. State, which won the championship for the second year.

The champion of the 200 yard dash was the team by Michigan, which won the championship for the second year.

The champion of the 400 yard dash was the team by Michigan State, which won the championship for the second year.

The champion of the 800 yard dash was the team by Wisconsin, which won the championship for the second year.

The champion of the 1,600 yard dash was the team by Penn. State, which won the championship for the second year.

Little RFive 5-11-1929

Clipped By:

jeffhollobaugh
Sat, Jun 13, 2020