

SOUTHWESTERN

WINNERS GATHER SIX FIRST PLACES

Central Takes Second in Point Making with 15 Counters; Springfield Next.

WIN BASEBALL CONTEST

Coy, Jerry Graham's Star Runner, Wins 100-Yard Dash in 11 Seconds Flat.

Southwestern made a clean sweep of the annual junior high school field and track meet and baseball game at Gensbach field Monday afternoon when approximately 300 boy and girl athletes participated.

Win Six Firsts

Southwestern won six first places to amass 42 points, 27 more than its nearest rival Central which gathered 15 counters. Springfield was next with 3 points. Lincoln got 4, Urbandale 2, Franklin 1 and McKinley and Post didn't place in a single event.

In the girls' events Southwestern lead the field by placing first in the 7th, 8th and 9th grade baseball throw, the 9th grade 50-yard dash, the 7th grade baseball accuracy throw and the 9th grade broad jump.

Coy Takes Dash

Coy of Southwestern won the 100-yard dash in 11 seconds flat. Pancoft of Springfield was second and Heracus of Central, third. In the 120-yard low hurdles, McDonald, another Southwestern athlete, took first in 14 1/2 seconds.

The broad jump went to 16 feet 11 1/2 inches made by Pancoft of Springfield. Palmatter of Southwestern was second and Huggett of Urbandale, third.

The pole vaulters weren't going so high Monday and the jumpers stopped at 7 feet 10 inches. Skidmore of Central made the last jump at this height. Miser of Lincoln was second and McDonald, Southwestern, third.
