Hair-Breadth Finish in Prep Century Race

COLTS AGAIN—Although Northwestern high school athletes captured state interscholastic track and field meet again at East Lansing Saturday by a comfortable margin, there were a number of close finishes to make things interesting. The upper shows the finish in the 100-yard dash. Bryant of Cass Tech, second from left, is breasting the tape the winner. Williams of Lansing, to his right, was second, and Watson of Eastern, second from right, was third. The runners on the outside are Palmer of Hamtramck and Thompson of Northwestern. McNutt of Allegan was snapped just after he hurled the discus 125 feet 3 inches for a new class B record. At the right is James Carr of Redford winning the class A mile. He won with yards to spare.

EAST LANSING, Mich., May 24.—As expected, Detroit schools ruled in the finals of Class A of the twenty-fourth annual Michigan High School Athletic Association track and field meet held here today. Detroit Northwestern's thinclads finished far

POLO DEADLOCK CAUSES REPLAY THIS SUNDAY

Freebooters, Grosse Pointe Teams Battle 9 Periods to 9-9 Tie Saturday

By Bert Walker
That intense rivalry for local polo honors between the Freebooters and the Grosse Pointe Polo Association burst forth Saturday afternoon again on the Freebooters' field at Southfield and Nine-mile roads, and the feud ended in a deadlock.

Twice before this season the Freebooters and the Grosse Pointe teams had met. Each had a victory. When they met Saturday afternoon it was hoped and believed that superiority would be established. At the end of nine desperate periods of excellent polo the teams were tied at 9-all and the game was called. It will be fought out this Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Freebooters' field.

To begin with, the Freebooters were handicapped four goals. Before the contest was more than half over they had overcome the handicap. But at the end the Grosse Pointers rode fast and furious and held the crack team of Freebooters even from then on to the finish.

Referee Calls Halt

A regular polo game goes for eight periods, or chukkers. After eight periods had been played the two teams had not yet decided a victor and it was inevitable another period should be played. This was done and still those dare-devils were deadlocked.

Then Major Henderson, referee, called a halt. He said that neither ponies nor men could go farther. The whole thing will be threshed in the van with 36½ points. Cass Tech was second with 20. Grand Rapids Central barely nosed out Redford for third ranking, with 10½ points to 10. Hamtramck and Ferndale tied for sixth honors; Detroit MacKenzie and Detroit Northeastern shared ninth; Detroit Western was tenth; Detroit Central was twelfth and Detroit Eastern, and University of Detroit High shared fifteenth place with Grand Rapids Creston.

How They Scored

The scoring in class A follows: Detroit Northwestern, 36½; Cass Tech, 20; Grand Rapids Central, 10½; Redford, 10; Ann Arbor, 9; Ferndale and Hamtramck, 7; Benton Harbor, Lansing Eastern and Muskegon, 6; Detroit MacKenzie, Detroit Northeastern and Mt. Clemens, 5; Detroit Western and Grand Rapids Union, 4½; Holland, 4; Detroit Central, 3; Pontiac, 2; Muskegon Heights, 1½; Detroit Eastern, University of Detroit High and Grand Rapids Creston 1.

Monroe in Class B, St. Augustine of Kalamazoo in Class C and Okemos in Class D won the other championships in addition to Northwestern.

Trailing Monroe in Class B was Allegan with 13 points, St. Josephs, with 12, and Caro and Dearborn, with 11 points each.

A neck and neck race resulted in Class C, with St. Augustine copping the final relay, to nose out Otsego, 14 to 13. Ontanagon and Bridgman shared third place with 11 points each. Okemos ran away with the field in Class D and scored 34 points, while South Luke, the nearest rival, piled up 28½ tallies. Middleton ranked third with 15 points and Alberta was fourth with 10½.

Few Records

No records were established in the preliminaries held Friday, as
