

STAR SPRINTERS WILL RACE HERE

Eddie Tolan Heads Entrants in Police Meet

Eleven brilliant sprinters, headed by Eddie Tolan, former University of Michigan star, have entered the special 100 and 200-meter races that will feature the fifth international police day at the state fair grounds, August 15.

Willis Ward, colored star, who aided Northwestern high school in its city track triumphs, is one of the field, which will offer competition to Tolan in the shorter dash. Ward specialized in the hurdles and the high jump for the Colts and his debut in a big time sprinting will be noted with interest.

Others entered in the 100 are George Hutson, a Detroit boy, who is attending Denison university; Peyton Glass, Jr., of Oklahoma A. and M.; James Burnett, of Mississippi U.; William McCormick, of Notre Dame; John Campbell, of Michigan, and Love Snowden, of Michigan State Normal, who formerly starred in track for Northeastern high school.

Ward is the only one of this group who has not also entered the 200-meter dash, but the entry of John Lewis, former national 400-yard indoor champion, and Louis Krill, Western State speedster, will more than make up for his absence.
