

Johnson Beats Owens for Junior A. A. U. Sprint Title

BY WILFRID SMITH.

Jimmy Johnson, Negro sprinter from Illinois State Normal, an alternate on the United States Olympic team last year, yesterday broke up the schedule for the 100 meter dash of the century which the officials of the Amateur Athletic union planned to hold tonight.

The greatest track and field performers in America and several from Europe are entered tonight in the most important meet of the American schedule. All the stars of last week's intercollegiate carnival are on hand and they will be augmented by Olympic, national, and world champions who have no college affiliation. It was this meet which the dash of the century was to feature.

But Johnson defeated Jesse Owens, Negro schoolboy from East Tech High, Cleveland, in the national A. A. U. junior dash, and Ralph Metcalfe, Marquette's national collegiate champion, must face a new menace tonight.

Owens won the interscholastic 100 yard race in 9 4-10 seconds at Soldiers' field two weeks ago, tying the world's record. That same day Metcalfe also tied the world record in winning the national collegiate title for the second year in succession. The battle between these athletes in the 100 meters tonight was planned as one of the features of the meet. The race still holds interest, but it will be Johnson instead of Owens that Metcalfe must watch.

Johnson Double Winner.

Johnson was timed in 10 4-10 seconds for the 100 meters yesterday, one-tenth of a second slower than the accepted world mark. Metcalfe won the N. C. A. A. in 1932 in 10 2-10 seconds, but his time has not been accepted.

There was no doubt yesterday about Johnson's superiority over Owens. He came back to win a second individual championship in the 200 meter dash. Owens did not compete, but Johnson had the satisfaction of whipping Don Bennett, who in 1932 won both sprints in the western conference meet. Bennett competed for Ohio State then, but he was ineligible this season. He

JOHNSON BEATS OWENS IN A. A. U. JUNIOR SPRINT

In the WAKE of the NEWS

REMARKABLE RACE BEATING.

While the headlines have proclaimed a hot battle between the two sprinters, the actual race was a surprise to the spectators. Johnson, the Chicagoan, won the 100-yard sprint in 11.8 seconds, while Owens, the American, finished in 12.1 seconds. The race was held at the University of Chicago, where Johnson is a student. Owens, who is a professional athlete, was invited to compete as a guest.

Johnson's victory was a surprise because Owens is considered one of the best sprinters in the world. Johnson, on the other hand, is a local favorite. The race was part of a series of events held in honor of the late Jesse Owens.

Five Records Set.

The junior sprint was held in the afternoon at the University of Chicago. The race was a hotly contested one, and the spectators were on their feet. Johnson's victory was a surprise to many, but Owens was not surprised. He had expected to win, but he was glad to see Johnson do so well.

The Six June Record.

The Chicago Tribune reported that the 100-yard sprint was the fastest ever run in the city. Johnson's time of 11.8 seconds was a new record for the city. Owens' time of 12.1 seconds was also a new record for the city.

Wonders of the World.

The race was a wonder to many of the spectators. Johnson's victory was a surprise to many, but Owens was not surprised. He had expected to win, but he was glad to see Johnson do so well.
