Girls' Athletics

Coaches: Hazel Dowd, head coach, jolly, amiable, junior high math and gym teacher. . . Helen Turner, assistant coach, naive and likable grade teacher. . . Marjorie Blaisdell, assistant coach, pleasant, picturesque grade teacher.

Aims: To give opportunity to as many girls as possible for improved posture, cooperation, and sportsmanship through participation in both informal and organized sports.

Activities: Two practice periods after school and one after supper during the basketball season. At other seasons, almost any night groups were engaged in practicing out-of-doors.

Officers: Donna Day, captain; Viva Wooliever, secretary.

Basketball

Letter Winners From 1939: Leslie Davis, Mildred Nichols, Phyllis Smith, and Viva Wooliever.

Reserves From 1939: Anne Jaksa, Bernice Wagner, June Olson, Patty Begel, Donna Day, Anita Baker, and Ruth Dunkel.

Outcome: Of the fourteen interscholastic games scheduled, Grand Blanc won half. The most decisive and interesting games were those with M. S. D. Each game was a hard fought, nip-and-tuck battle for top score.

Veterans for 1940: Jeanice Brooks, Patty Begel, Mildred Nichols, Ruth Dunkel, Anne Jaksa, Phyllis Smith, Donna Day, and Anita Baker.

Tennis

Tennis, as an organized sport, has not been previously carried on in G. B. H. S. Plans include definite instruction in the arts and skills of tennis and an intra-school tournament this year.

Track

Track for girls in Genesee County provides for only one meet, the all-county meet at Flint Central late in May. In 1939 the Grand Blanc squad failed to place in the events entered except the relay, in which they ranked fifth. This team was composed of Anne Jaksa, Gerry Magrath, Mary Schumacher, and Milcent Anderson.

Softball

Softball is the major sport for girls in the spring; games are played with Goodrich, Hadley, Mt. Morris, Bendle, and Beecher. In the 1939 season Grand Blanc won half their games. Jeanice Brooks was the star pitcher; Milcent Anderson was the heavy batter.
