...diced a single hit and only eight batsmen faced him.

Ogle, third baseman, and Moore, right fielder, and Brande, center-fielder, had big days with the stick for the Colts, each gathering in three hits. Moore had a triple, double and single while Ogle also had a triple and two singles. But everybody was hitting. The only two chaps who didn't connect safely were Matson and Wally Hoyle, the sub battery that went to work in the seventh inning. They really didn't have time.

The cancellation of the Sunday game was particularly disappointing to Ted Coffey, Catholic Central High rookie, who signed up with the locals Saturday. Coffey was to have started against the Saginaws.
