Cooley Wins Relay Title

Trenton Walks Off With B Track Crown

For the third straight year Cooley high school raced off with major honors in the eleventh renewal of the Wayne Relays at Redford High School.

Turning in the fastest times in four of the seven track events, the Cardinals salvaged a final portion of track glory for their defeat last Thursday by Miller in the finals of the city championship meet by rolling up 71 5-14 points.

Miller, pre-meet favorite, finished third with 49 5-14 points behind Denby, the meet's surprise, with 60 6-7 points.

Trenton outdistanced three rivals in Class B with 29½ points while River Rouge was second with 22 points. No records were broken in any event.
