Campbell Shows New Speed Boat

Portsmouth, England—UP—Sir Malcolm Campbell unveiled his Blue Bird, first jet-propelled speed boat in history, before a group of friends today and said he would try to race her to a new world record in mid-June on Lake Coniston, England.

Sir Malcolm, now 61, holds the present record of 141.7 miles an hour, and he set a record of 301 miles an hour in an automobile in 1935. He has been speeding for more than 45 years, when a judge lectured him for going too fast on a bicycle.

Blue Bird is a modification of Campbell's record-setting motorboat of 1939. It has a De Havilland Goblin jet engine producing so much power that aviation engineers were consulted because of the possibility that the aerody-
