

Ann Arbor Trackmen Lose to Battle Creek

Bearcats Score 65 2-3 to 43 1-3 Triumph.

ANN ARBOR—Coach Bob Mowerson's Battle Creek high school track team took seven firsts and placed a man in second in all four field events here yesterday afternoon to register a 65½ to 43½ victory over the Ann Arbor Pioneers.

Owen Anderson paced the Bearcat victory by taking firsts in the pole vault and high jump and placing second in the high hurdles. Mendell Vaughns took a first and two seconds to also aid the Battle Creek cause.

The leading scorer of the meet was Ann Arbor's Brad Harding who won the low hurdles, the broad jump and was on the winning 880-yard relay team.
