Gilders Gets Practice with Record Vault

Fletcher Gilders, Northwestern High's all-around jumping-jack, is eying a National indoor scholastic record in the pole vault Thursday.

Gilders vaulted 13 feet, 3½ inches Monday in practice, bettering the National indoor mark of 13 feet, 2 inches. Thursday Northwestern will play host to Chadsey.

THE NORTHWESTERN senior already holds the City and State pole vault record, 12 feet, 7¾ inches, which he leaped last spring at Denby High.

His spectacular practice jump Monday was measured by Coach Jimmy Russell.

In addition to pole vaulting, Gilders is City League diving champion and National AAU junior tumbling titleholder.
