Pilots Nose St. Joseph

Martin's Jump Is Clincher of Meet

BY HAL SCHRAM

With a limp and a leap, Tom Martin saved the day for De-LaSalle High School's track team Friday at University of Detroit Stadium.

The Pilots piled up 29½ points to caputure their second Catholic League track and field title in three years and it was Martin who deserved a major share of the credit.

Martin was third in the low hurdles, then finished fourth in the broad jump, final event on the program, to give LaSalle the necessary points to edge St. Joseph. The Blue Jays settled for 27 points.

BUT HERE'S the story which demonstrates the value of Martin's fourth-place finish.

LaSalle went into the broad jump with a 3½-point edge over St. Joe, 27½ to 24. St. Joseph had both Cy Kruger and Joe Gough in the broad jump, while Martin was LaSalle's only qualifier.

Any combination of a four-point edge by St. Joseph over LaSalle in the event would have given the Blue Jays the trophy.

Despite an injured right leg, Martin managed a jump of 18 feet six inches, good for fourth place. Kruger finished third but Gough went unplaced.

St. Mary of Redford stole the event when Floyd Kanny and Jim Morrison finished one-two.

DICK CONOVER, of St. Rose, was the day's only double winner. He captured the 100-yard dash in :10.4 and turned in a record :22.5 performance in the 220.
