Everett, Dundee Also Win

Saginaw Wins Class A Crown In Albion College Prep Relays

(Special to the Enquirer and News)

ALBION — Carrying home the championship trophies of Albion college's tenth annual high school invitational track meet yesterday on Alumni field were the teams of Saginaw in class A, Lansing Everett in class B and Dundee in classes C-D.

Battle Creek's three teams in the meet found going too tough to keep apace and each trailed well behind the ranking squads in its respective class. The Bearcats were outdistanced by all four of their class A opponents, while Lakeview was 13th among 17 class B squads and St. Philip was 14th in an 18-team C-D field.

Saginaw, which came here a heavy favorite to outshine all competition, was carried right down to the wire by Kalamazoo Central's stubborn challengers. Kalamazoo's failure to place a man in the final event, the pole vault, in which Saginaw gained a fourth position, gave the upstaters the victory margin, 50-49½. Ann Arbor was third with 39⅓, Jackson followed with 30⅓ and Battle Creek trailed with 21 5/6.

In Class B, Lansing Everett's balance brought 37⅓ points, while Howell captured the runner-up spot with 32 points and Marshall was third with 30 9/10. Plymouth, winner of the 1949 meet, was fourth with 29⅓ points. Sturgis showed surprising strength, picking up 25 points, good for fifth place. Albion, with 7½ points, just edged Lakeview's Spartans, who had seven.

In the Class C-D division, favored Dundee, with its 47 points, was seriously challenged only by Bedford, the runner-up with 41½ points. It was a Dundee athlete, Jack Goodridge, who was the individual star. He won both the 100 yd. dash and low hurdles, tied for first in the high jump and was second in the broad jump for a neat 18½-point total.

In the other divisions, the individual point leaders were Bob Fowler of Ann Arbor, winner of both dashes and half of the broad jump's fifth place for 10½ points, in class A and Marshall's Dick King, winner of both dashes for 10 points in class B.

New class A meet records included marks of 15.4 seconds by Jack Boersma of Kalamazoo in the high hurdles, of 52.8 seconds by Harry Miller of Jackson in the 440 and of 11 ft., 6 in., by both Jim Bonney of Jackson and Roger Maugh of Ann Arbor. New records in class B: Lou Vargha, Plymouth, 21 ft., broad jump; King, Marshall, 15.3 seconds, high hurdles; and John Bachman, East Lansing, 49 ft., 7½ in., shot put. Glen Tuttle of Leslie stepped to a new mark of 16 seconds in the class C-D high hurdles.

Battle Creek's Jim Arnold won the 880-yard run while Bill Towns earned a first place tie for the high jump. St. Philip's Fred Smith tied for first in the class C-D high jump.
