Carrasquel Helps Fight Commies

CHICAGO — When White Sox fans decided to give Chico Carrasquel a "Day", everybody got into the act—including the Venezuelan government and the United States department of state.

The sizzling young shortstop was given $5,000 in cash, a station wagon and other gifts.

The governments took interest in the occasion in an effort to combat Communism and juvenile delinquency in Venezuela by pointing to the success of an underprivileged Caracas youth in a free country.
