

victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Turned Ankle Gives Miller Track Meet

Pershing Anchor Hal Stone suffered an ankle sprain 70 yards from the finish Wednesday and Miller streaked to a 50 1/6-40 5/6 indoor track victory.

Stone held a slight lead over the Trojans' Rex McLeod in the 880-yard relay, the final and decisive event, when he turned his ankle. Miller won in 1:36.5.

* * *

THE TEAMS are regarded as the chief powers of the East Side. Miller won seven events and Pershing four.

The winners' best performances were registered by McLeod, who also took the high jump at six feet, and Jesse Underwood, who won the pole vault at 10-6.

Pershing's best was a slam of the mile by Bob Williams, Ron Wheeler and Gurney Beach. Williams won in 4:55.5.

ha.
Ma
cia
to a v
l
las tin

Detroit indoor 4-1-1953

Clipped By:

jeffhollobaugh
Tue, Jan 8, 2019