

MACKENZIE trimmed Western, 70 to 39, with Norm Zackiewicz taking the 100 and the low hurdles. Pershing stopped Eastern, 69 3-5 to 39 2-5, despite a 15-point surge by the Indians' Fred Hopgood.

Hopgood won the broad jump at 20-2, the 100 at :10.5 and the 220 at :23.6. Pershing's Ray Dunger piled up 14 points on a first in the high hurdles and seconds in the broad jump, shot put and 220.

Central whipped Mumford, 69 to 38, with Leroy Stelton sweeping the hurdles and Bill Stevens the dashes. . . . Cass Tech stopped Pershing, 5 to 0 and Wright beat Northwestern, 4 to 1, in tennis matches.

Detroit duals 5-21-1953

Clipped By:

jeffhollobaugh
Mon, Jan 7, 2019