Sacred Heart Plays St. Mary In Key Contest

City Parochial League

	W	L	Pct.
St. Michael	6	1	.857
St. Mary	3	2	.600
Sacred Heart	2	3	.500
St. Matthew	2	3	.400
St. Agnes	0	5	.000

Game Today: St. Mary at Sacred Heart (Oak Knoll) 2:30.

St. Michael's competition for the City Parochial League title will be reduced to one team today when St. Mary and Sacred Heart play a postponed game at Oak Knoll. Starting time is 2 o'clock.

Only the Marys and Cougars are left to rival the Mikes who clinched a share of the crown Friday. Today's loser will drop out of the running with three defeats. St. Michael (6-1) has only one more game to play.

Sacred Heart coach Ed Abraham will call on righthander Jack Koryciak to keep his club in the running for the title it has won or shared the past two seasons. Koryciak already holds a 3-2 decision over the Marys earlier this season.

His mound foe will probably be another righthander, Jerry Hamilton, whose latest effort was a fine 1-0 shutout against St. Michael. If Hamilton needs relief Howard Darley will probably come on.

Sacred Heart's only two defeats so far came at the hands of the Mikes so the Cougars must win their remaining four games and depend on St. Mary
