Native Dancer Continues to Excite Public

BALTIMORE, Pa. — The specter of an exciting today whether Native Dancer is great, good or just the best of a poor crew, but there's no question the gray colt has excited the public more than any horse, probably since Man O'War.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt's proved consistently in Saturday's quality of color.

Hardly if ever has a race horse been applauded by the crowd willing to the post as he was at Pimlico by 30,756.

Never has a horse caused such a distraction of betting.

There was $26,639 bet on the seven horses and $55,863 of this
