$14,000 Bid For Carter

NEW YORK—(U.P.)—Manager Willie Ketchum received an offer of $14,000 for Lightweight Champion James Carter to defend his title against Joergen Johansen, of Denmark, at Copenhagen in August.

Johansen is lightweight champion of Europe.

The offer, made by Promoter Bernhard Madsen, of Copenhagen, interested Ketchum.

NORTHEASTERN'S Willie Adkins was the meet's top individual point getter. Adkins was second in both the broad jump and pole vault and third in both the high hurdles and low hurdles.

Don Thomas and Lloyd Swanson were double winners for Miller. Thomas won the 100 and 230 while Swanson was the victor in both hurdles. High winds prevented any record performances.
