Redford Just Misses Catching Northwestern

Northwestern High retained its City League West Side title Thursday but almost got nipped at the wire by a fast-closing Redford outfit.

The Huskies, 30 points behind with three events left, scored 34 points in the 850 pole vault and 880-yard relay to almost upset the Colts.

WHEN the final tabulations were in, however, Northwestern had 78½ points to 73½ for Redford. Other team totals were: Cooley 38, Mackenzie 28½, Central 20, Southwestern 12, Western 10½, Mumford 7, Chadsey 4 and Cody 1.

The Colts grabbed 16 individual places and qualified two relays for next week's semifinals and finals.

Northwestern appeared in excellent position to challenge Miller, the East Side and defending City League champion, for this year's title.

Northwestern won seven of 13 firsts. No records were broken.
