Northwestern Hits Bottom K After 6 Track Titles in Row

By HARVEY BARCUS and I don't care who does," he Don Judd, of Redford. Jim Butz, Jimmy Russell was a happy individual without a care or worry during the Metropolitan League West Side track trials at Redford yesterday. For the first time in years the Northwestern High coach was "sitting out" a meet.

"I know we won't win this one again."

said, grinning. "Some of the boys of Cooley, put the shot 46 feet 8 I had counted on have left inches. school, others are ineligible and some are injured, which leaves Redford 71/2, Chadsey 7, Cooley me with almost nothing. That 6, and Central 3. gives me a chance to watch a meet without having butterflies bounsing around my system. But I promise you we'll be back

OUT OF RUNNING

Russell didn't exaggerate his team's plight. Nine events were held and Northwestern, the sectional champion for six successive years, had only four qualifiers. Mackenzie led with 11, one SHOT PUT: 1. Jim Butz (Cool.): 2. more than Central and Redford, Lain (Mack.): 4. Bill Snowden (Cent.): while Cody had nine. The finals ham (Red.). 46 feet 8 inches. will be run Friday, the field POLE VAULT: 1. Jerry Lula (Cody): events starting at 2 p.m. and the Genslak (Cody): tie for 4. Jim Oliphant races at 2:30. The shot put and pole vault Genslak tied for second with aldson :57.7.

Mackenzie scored 8 points,
