Pontiac Repeats as Track Champs; Inkster Bows

2d Crown To Covert

Inkster Falls to St. Joseph

By George Maskin

EAST LANSING, May 18—Both as a coach and prognosticator Pontiac High's Dean Wilson knows his business.

He predicted his Chiefs would repeat for the third straight year as the state's Class A track champs. Furthermore, he said they'd score 30 points

Meantime, Boyne City lived

upto expectations to take the Class C crown on the Michigan State University track, while at Ann Arbor, St. Joseph clipped Inkster's reign in Class B as Covert took the Class D crown for the second consecutive year.

NO RECORDS FALL

Rain, mud and chilly air squashed what had expected to be a record-smashing party at both centers. Not a single new standard was set, a far cry from a year ago when 11 records fell in the lower peninsula and 12 more above the Straits.

A disqualification in the medley relay, plus disappointing la performances by its hundlers hampered Flint Northern's bid.

Jason Harness and Terry Montei teamed up to bring St. Town his first state track forown since 1945. Between them they accounted for 27½ of St. 20 Joseph's 32 points. Inkster tralled in second with 27.
